

COMMUNITY ADVISORY COMMITTEES

In order for the Wrangell Public Schools Board to continuously gather community input from stakeholders and constituents, Community Advisory Committees shall be formed. These committees shall serve the purpose of providing on-going community input through the School Principal, to the School Board. The following guidelines shall govern the procedures of the Community Advisory Committees:

1. School Principals shall advertise the Committee broadly to include any and all interested constituents and stakeholders. Members should include representation from a wide range of subgroups in the District (migrant, Title I, Indian Education, etc.).
 2. In the fall School Principals shall appoint a minimum of 6 community members to serve on the Committee. Additional appointments may be made as needed.
 3. The Committee shall appoint a member as Community Advisory Committee Chair at the first meeting following appointments in the fall.
 4. Community Advisory Committee meetings shall be held monthly during the school year. The Community Advisory Committee Chair shall report to the Board at least once per school quarter.
 5. The Community Advisory Committee Chair shall be responsible for contacting the selected Community Advisory Committee members and shall ensure the following responsibilities and conditions of the Community Advisory Committee are met:
 - a. By-laws should be created to govern the Committee. These shall include at a minimum the selection of officers and meeting protocols that ensure all stakeholder input is heard and recorded accurately and objectively in committee meeting notes. The Committee may choose an alternate name for their committee however, it must include the name of the school.
 - b. The Community Advisory Committee input is not intended to exercise direct influence on, or address individual staff, family or student complaints or grievances. The Community Advisory Committee shall not discuss individual students or staff members.
 - c. The Community Advisory Committee should serve the purpose of hearing input from families and the community. The Community Advisory Committee shall not be used as a vehicle for employees of the District to exercise influence over the decisions of, or air grievances to, the Board Members.
 - d. District information, data, or reports needed by the Community Advisory Committee shall be provided by the School Principal and staff designees who shall attend all meetings and provide such information and clarification as requested to the Committee.
